Autism Action Groups were developed to help maximize “value added” autism services by bringing together local stakeholders, Autism Action Groups meet monthly and consist of members from local communities who have a desire to actively and collaboratively work toward providing quality services and resources for individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorders. Group participants include self-advocates, parents, educators, private and public service providers, and other concerned individuals.

The Fredericksburg Area Autism Action Group (FRAAG) is an entity of Commonwealth Autism Service. Autism Action Groups are initiated, developed, facilitated and supported by CAS Action Groups Coordinators.
